Speaker, Choice of a
Right Hon. John Evelyn Denison unanimously called to the Chair Feb 1, [181] 4;—Presented and approved Feb 2, 17

SPEAKER, The (Right Hon. J. E. Denison) Nottinghamshire, N.
Illness of—The Clerk at the Table informed the House of the unavoidable absence of Mr. Speaker, through illness, and read his letter to the House—Whereupon Mr. Dodson, the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, proceeded to the Table as Deputy Speaker; and after prayers, counted the House, and forty Members being present, took the Chair, pursuant to the Standing Order of the 20th day of July, 1855—Mar 9, [181] 1792; and the like on subsequent occasions

Mr. Speaker resumes the Chair; and after thanking the House for its kindness and consideration during his illness, requests the further indulgence of being permitted to sit while putting the Questions April 9, [182] 888

On the Chairman of Committee (Supply) leaving the Chair (in the course of the evening) the Clerk informed the House that Mr. Speaker was advised by his medical attendant that he was not in a condition to return to the House at that late hour—Whereupon Mr. Dodson, the Chairman of Committee of Ways and Means, took the Chair as Deputy Speaker April 9, [182] 958

The Clerk having informed the House that Mr. Speaker had been obliged by the state of his health to retire from the House for the remainder of the night—Mr. Dodson took the Chair as Deputy Speaker April 17, April 19, April 20

Mr. Speaker informed the House that having received notice that a Commission to give the Royal Assent to several Acts of Parliament is ordered for this day, and that being disabled from attending with the House in the House of Peers, he should be obliged, with the permission of the House, to withdraw before the arrival of the Usher of the Black

Rod — Whereupon it was Resolved that during the temporary absence of Mr. Speaker from the House this day, for the reason stated by him, the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means do take the Chair as Deputy Speaker, and do attend with this House in the House of Peers, and do report to this House the Royal Assent to this Act April 20, [182] 1763, April 23, April 30, May 18

Amendment—Withdrawal of—The O'Donoghue having moved an Amendment to a paragraph in the Address, proposed to withdraw it, in order to add the words to the paragraph. Mr. Speaker said, that the Amendment was in possession of the House, and it was for the House to decide whether they would grant permission to the hon. Gentleman to make the change he proposed.—Debate on the Address, [181] 273

Amendment on Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair"—Representation of the People Bill: Committee—Notice given of Amendments to Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair"—Motion made that this Bill and the Re-distribution of Seats Bill be referred to the same Committee, and agreed to—Instruction to the Committee agreed to—The only Amendment that could be moved to the Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair," was [the first] that of the hon. Member for Wells; and the House having decided that Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair, the opportunity for moving any other Amendment had gone by

An hon. Member had given notice to move an Amendment on Question "That Mr. Speaker, &c.," on order for Committee on the first of these Bills—The opportunity had passed by—The proper time for raising the Question was by objecting to the Motion for reference of both Bills to the same Committee; in which case the second Bill must have been postponed, [183] 1918

Amendments on Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair."—Mr. Speaker explains the application of Standing Order July 19, to the circumstances attending the close of the debate on Amendment to Motion that he do now leave the Chair, on order of the day for the House to go into Committee on the Representation of the People Bill, June 4, [183] 1918, 1947

Bills—When a Bill is brought in it is at once read a first time — Representation of the People Bill, [181] 1286

Bills—Passing a Bill through several stages at one sitting—Notice—The Indemnity Bill, having been read a second time, committed, reported, and considered, it was moved "That the Bill be now read the third time"—Mr. Darby Griffith asked whether more notice ought not to have been given, when it was intended to pass a Bill through all its stages, than the mere Motion of a Member of the Government? Mr. Speaker said, that under such circumstances it was competent to any hon. Member to interfere; but if the body of the House was satisfied that there was no objection, then it had not been unfrequent that a Bill, if it had been passed through Committee without Amendment or objection, should be read a third time and passed in the same day, [184] 2107

Bills—Reprints of Bills—The usual course before reprinting a Bill, is that the House should go into Committee pro formâ, and afterwards that the Bill should be re-committed; but if any other course is for the convenience of Members, there is no objection to its adoption —Representation of the People Bill, and Redistribution of Seats Bill, [183] 344

Chairman of Committees—An hon. Member having asked Mr. Speaker whether on going into Committee on the first Naval Vote, Members would be allowed to discuss the Estimates at large? Mr. Speaker said, that the Question should be addressed to the Chairman of Committees—Masters in the Royal Navy, [181] 1320

Debate—Limitation in Explanation—Court of Queen's Bench (Ireland), [183] 355; [184] 1667

Debate—Explanation—Interruption of a Member for the purpose of explanation, irregular —Court of Queen's Bench (Ireland), [183] 800

Debate—Premature discussion of a Motion—A Member may speak generally on a subject before the House; but to speak of a proposal of which he has given Notice for a future day, is not in order—Representation of the People Bill, [183] 1334

Debate—Premature discussion of a Motion—A Member who has given Notice of a Motion to be made at a later period of the evening, cannot by anticipation go into that Question by moving the adjournment of the House—Queen's University and Queen's Colleges (Ireland), [181] 965; [184] 1536

Debate—Discussion of a Bill not before the House—In debate on the Representation of the People (England) Bill, an hon. Member complained of a provision in the Irish Bill. Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member was not in order in discussing the Reform Bill for Ireland, as that measure was not before the House, [183] 918

Debate—Reference to a past Debate—A Member is out of order in referring to a debate which has taken place during the present Session, [183] 1450; [184] 2139

Debate—To quote a speech made in the other House during the present Session, not in order.—Tenure and Improvement of Land (Ireland) Bill, [183] 1098

Debate—To read a letter which makes comment on the debates of this House, not in order.—Army—Musketry Instruction, [183] 826

Debate—Unparliamentary Expressions—To assert that an hon. Gentleman makes a statement which he knows to be unfounded is going beyond the Parliamentary limits of debate—And Mr. Speaker called upon the

Member who had used this expression to apologize or retract the words objected to.—The Irish Bench, [183] 801

Debate—The House having exhibited marked impatience during the speech of an hon. Member, Mr. Speaker appealed to him, considering the length of time that had been already spent, that he should exercise forbearance, and not proceed further with his address.—Fenian Conspiracy—Motion for a Committee, [183] 1696

Committees—Instructions—An Instruction is not in the nature of an Amendment to the Motion for going into Committee, and therefore Amendments to that Motion are not interfered with by an Instruction.—Representation of the People, &c. Bill, [183] 921

Divisions—Any Member who has first given his voice with the "Ayes," and then says that the "Noes" have it, in order to force a division, does an irregular and un-Parliamentary thing

A Member who, having given his voice with the "Ayes," and the Speaker having declared that "The Ayes have it," challenges the decision of the Speaker by saying "The Noes have it," will have to vote with the "Noes." —Representation of the People Bill, [183] 1919

Election Committees—The Bridgwater Election Committee having reported, the evidence having been laid on the Table of the House, and the House having acted upon it and issued the writ; it is beyond the province of a private Member to interrogate the Chairman now as to the proceedings of that Committee.—Bridgwater Election — Question, [183] 1797

Members' Appropriation of Seats in the House —The Order of the House, made some years ago, is that the only way to secure a seat shall be by attendance at prayers, and that then a card shall be placed at the back of the seat April 20, [182] 1765

Motion of which notice has been given may be changed to a Question—A Member having given notice that he will, at a later period of the evening, on going into Committee of Supply, make a Motion on a certain subject, has the liberty, if he pleases, of changing that Motion into the form of a Question; but in putting that Question, he is bound to observe the prescribed rules.—Queen's University and Queen's Colleges (Ireland), [181] 965

Motion—A Motion having been proposed is in the possession of the House and cannot be withdrawn without leave (see Amendment), [181] 273

Motion "That the House do now adjourn"—Colonel Sykes having brought to the attention of the House the conduct of the Acting Governor of Hong Kong, and concluded by Motion pro formâ "That the House do now adjourn"—Mr. Watkin rose to Order, and inquired whether it was competent to the hon. and gallant Member to make that Motion, there being a notice of Motion on the paper "That the House do adjourn until

Monday." Mr. Speaker said, that Supply not being on the paper, there was nothing to prevent the hon. and gallant Member from making the Motion "That the House do now adjourn," [184] 2050

Mr. Henley having moved "That the debate be now adjourned," which was negatived on division, moved "That the House do now adjourn." Mr. Speaker said, it was not competent for the right hon. Gentleman to make that Motion after the last Motion which he had made.—Compulsory Church Rate Abolition Bill, [184] 1449

Orders of the Day—The Government having the power of arranging the Orders (on Government nights) in the way which may appear to them most convenient for the despatch of public business; and the Committee on Ways and Means, and the Committee on the National Debt Acts, which were intended to stand together, having been accidentally separated in the notices distributed on Saturday, the Clerk directed them to be printed together in the Orders of the Day for Monday evening, [183] 563

Parliamentary Papers—Lord Robert Montagu having complained that copies of the Cattle Diseases Act had not been delivered to Members, although it was stated (in the Notices) to have been 'delivered' the previous day, and numerous copies had been sold to the public—Mr. Speaker said, that the House had no immediate control over the Queen's printer, but that a communication should be made to the Clerk of the Parliaments to prevent the recurrence of such a circumstance, [181] 901

Question may be substituted for a Motion of which notice has been given—A Member having given notice that he will, at a later period of the evening, on going into Committee of Supply, make a Motion on a certain subject, has the liberty, if he pleases, of changing that Motion into the form of a Question; but in putting that Question, he is bound to observe the prescribed rules.—Queen's University and Queen's Colleges (Ireland), [181] 965

Questions—Ministerial replies to Questions—When a Question is asked and a Member of the Government rises to reply, it is proper that he should be allowed to do so at once; and that hon. Members should reserve further Questions till that reply has been given, [184] 238

Speaker's Warrants—Election Committees—The Speaker's warrant is simply a warrant commanding attendance before an Election Committee; and the only reason for applying to the Speaker for his warrant is, that until the Committees are appointed, there is no Chairman with authority to issue his warrant to summon witnesses before them.—Devonport Election, [181] 1302

Votes and Proceedings of the House—The 'days of the week' and the 'months' in the Votes, which have hitherto been in Latin, to be henceforth in English, [181] 107
